BIO

William graduated from the University of South Australia in 2015 with a Bachelor of Laws.

He went on to complete his Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice at the Australian National University. William was admitted as a practitioner at the Supreme Courts of New South Wales and South Australia in 2017.

Although William studied many areas of law during his degree, Family Law has always held his interest. William is meticulous in his preparations and aims to reach a negotiated settlement whenever possible.

William is a member of the Law Society of South Australia and the Family Law Section of the Law Council of Australia.
